"HARVEST AND SEED TIME" BY COMBINED CHOIRS

The performance of John E. West's sacred cantata, "Harvest and Seed Time," at the Pro-Cathedral, Church of the Ascension, last night, was interesting and entertaining. The cantata was sung by the combined choirs of St. John's Church, Sixteenth and H Streets, and the Church of the Ascension, under the direction of H. B. Freeman.

The large chorus has been rehearsing for several weeks in anticipation of the recital last night, and its fine rendering of the work was the subject of much favorable comment. Miss Clabough, soprano, and Charles Myers, tenor, assumed the solo parts, and Mr. Freeman, who officiated at the organ, was assisted by Anita Closs, harpist.

DEGREES OF JUSTICE IN SIMILAR OFFENSES

Holland Escapes the Death Penalty to Be Imposed on Burley by Entering Plea of Guilty.

The result in the cases of John W. Burley, convicted and sentenced to death by a jury for criminal assault, and the acceptance of a plea of guilty for a similar offense made by Andrew Holland, in the local courts, stand out in bold contrast with each other. Both men are negroes. Burley was tried by Justice Pritchard and a jury in Criminal Court No. 1. The jurors who heard the evidence against him found him guilty, and under the authority of the law said Burley must forfeit his life as a penalty for the crime he committed. Burley's victim was a five-year-old negro girl.

Holland is also a negro. His victim, however, was a five-year-old white child of respectable parents, who reside in Georgetown. Holland was called to the bar of justice yesterday, by advice of his counsel, he withdrew his plea of not guilty and admitted the truth of the indictment returned against him by the grand jury. It was with hesitancy and apparently great reluctance Justice Pritchard accepted the plea. He said it might be a case in which the death penalty would be imposed, and for that reason hesitated to allow Holland to enter such a plea.

Justice Pritchard was, however, informed by Assistant District Attorney Turner that it was a case in which the plea could be accepted. The court then allowed the prisoner to plead guilty to the charge.

It is not the custom of members of the District Supreme Court to accept a plea of guilty in a capital case. Numerous instances have occurred where the justice presiding in the criminal court, where the accused in a capital case offers a plea of guilty, has directed the clerk to enter a plea of not guilty and place the prisoner on trial before a jury.

There is some doubt, however, whether such a case as that of Andrew Holland is really a capital case. For it is the jury and not the presiding justice which has authority in such cases to fix the penalty of death. In the event that the jury reported a verdict of "guilty" without the addition of the words, "with the death penalty," the court is without power to impose the death penalty.

According to the code the penalty for criminal assault is imprisonment in the penitentiary from five to thirty years.

FORESTERS WILL HOLD SMOKER THIS EVENING

The annual smoker of the Court Washington, No. 2, Foresters of America, will be held in Macabees Hall, in Ninth Street, this evening, beginning at 8 o'clock.

A special musical program has been arranged, and several addresses will be made.

Y. M. C. A. MUST GET $73,000 IN 21 DAYS

Donations of $57,000 for Projected New Building Conditions Upon Its Success in Doing So.

If the Young Men's Christian Association of Washington can raise $73,000 between midnight tonight and midnight of December 31 it will have obtained, in addition to funds already in hand, a cash total of $120,000, inasmuch as $57,000 from outside parties is conditioned upon its ability to do this. If it fails in raising the $73,000 within the prescribed time it will lose the promised amount. Of this sum of $73,000, $50,000 has been promised by John D. Rockefeller, $5,000 by George Foster Peabody, of Brooklyn, and $2,000 by John H. Converse, of Philadelphia.

On an average $3,500 must be raised each day if the coveted sum of $73,000 is to be in hand by the time the bells toll the beginning of the New Year. It is understood that subscriptions of large amounts need not be paid in lump sum, but may be distributed over any reasonable period of time the donors may desire. Thus, for instance, a person subscribing $1,000 may make his payments at the rate of $20 a week, completing his subscription in a year, or he may give $10 a week, and thus extend the period of his contribution over two years.

The subscriptions may be sent to any of the directors, who are Gen. Charles Bird, Dr. W. K. Butler, S. W. Arriden, H. B. Davidson, Daniel Fraser, M. E. Gates, E. W. Halford, T. A. Harding, George H. Harries, Dr. J. T. Johnson, S. J. Peelle, A. M. Lathrop, F. L. Moore, C. F. Nesbit, C. W. Needham, James Sharp, W. H. H. Smith, G. W. F. Swartzell, A. S. Taylor, B. H. Warner, John Joy Edson, or to President S. W. Woodward, Treasurer W. H. Kerr, or to the secretaries of the Young Men's Christian Association Building, 1732 G Street.

The amount of $73,000 here referred to would complete the sum of $200,000 required for the construction of the new building of the association, a description of the details of which has been printed in The Times. Mr. Rockefeller and the other prospective donors recognize the fact that this institution, like nearly all others in Washington, is of a national character, and apart from other considerations, their interest in its success is based upon this circumstance. No doubt this interest was further stimulated by their appreciation of the liberality with which the directors of the Y. M. C. A. and other Washingtonians have contributed to the enterprise, $170,000 having been subscribed for the new building by citizens of the District.

PETITION IN BANKRUPTCY.

William W. Matchett, trading as Long & Matchett, dealers in wallpaper, at 137 1/2 Fourteenth Street northwest, yesterday filed a petition in voluntary bankruptcy. He lists his liabilities at $2,135.34, and his assets at $4,251.36. In the latter is listed a life insurance policy for $5,000. Walter P. Plumley is named as counsel for the petitioner.

GEORGETOWN MUSICIANS IN VARSITY CONCERT

Glee and Mandolin Clubs Appear in Gaston Hall for the Benefit of College Crew.

The glee and mandolin clubs of Georgetown University gave a concert last night in Gaston Hall for the benefit of the college crew which is to meet Annapolis in May and Poughkeepsie in June. The hall was filled by friends of the students, and much enthusiasm prevailed at the concert. Mr. Gaynor, S. J., is in charge of the glee department this year and Mr. Foote directs the mandolin. Both clubs scored distinct successes and were forced to respond to several encores.

The soloists were Joseph L. Battle, one of Georgetown's students, who occupies a high position in musical circles here; Mr. Clabaugh, bass soloist of St. Stephen's Church; George O'Connor, whose dialect songs have made him extremely popular not only here, but in other cities; Joseph Cullen, the well-known banjoist; Edward J. Walsh, in some of his interesting recitations, and Al Stern, the clever entertainer.

Gaston Hall was prettily decorated for the occasion and the affair was pronounced a gratifying success.

QUESTION OF OPEN CARS ON THE COLUMBIA LINE

Corporation Counsel to Decide Whether District Commissioners Have Power to Discontinue Their Use.

In compliance with a request made by the Northeast Washington Citizens' Association, Commissioner Macfarland has recommended to the Board of Commissioners that the Corporation Counsel be requested to advise the Board whether they have power to regulate or prohibit the use of a particular type of car on the street railways of the District of Columbia, on the ground of protecting the public health.

This motion is made in view of statements made by the president and other officers and members of the Northeast Citizens' Association at a public hearing given by the Commissioners on December 8, and of a petition signed by 780 citizens of the Northeast section of the city, presented by them, to the effect that the health of many people is injuriously affected because they have to ride in so-called combination cars in inclement weather.

They asked the Commissioners, if possible, to make a regulation that would protect the public health in this respect.
